Student Council Begins Work On Extensive Second Semester Program

Entertainment, News, Athletics Get Bulk Of Semester's Ac. Fees

Financial Committee Allocates $5,944; Await Deferred And Late Fees

Men's athletics, social activities, the entertainment course and the Bee Gee News as usual drew the bulk of appropriation from activity fees for this semester.

Such was the significance of the report on semester activity fee disbursement which was made last week by the financial committee composed of Dr. J. R. Overman, Dr. Benjamin Nordmann, Prof. W. E. Singer, Al Cryer and Lyman Keown.

With a total of $5,944.56 at their disposal, the committee made the following allocations:

Athletics (men)	$2500
Athletics (women)	175
Social Committee	850
Drama	250
Debate	400
Bee Gee News	700
Music	300
Entertainment Course	700
Student Council	30

Total$5905

It was also voted to appropriate an additional sum of $100 to the entertainment course as soon as enough deferred fees are received. The disposal of any balance that may arise from deferred and late fees was left to a future meeting.

Palmer Judges Plays In Contest At Risingsun

Mr. Upton Palmer, instructor in the speech department, judged a group of one act plays in a three-school contest at Risingsun, Thursday, Feb. 9.

Schools participating in the contest were Risingsun, Wayne and Cygnet, and the winner was Risingsun with a production of "Two Men of a Bench". This play was directed by Miss Dorothy Carmichael, daughter of Prof. J. W. Carmichael, assisted by two Bowling Green University students, James Platt and Tony Francis.

A girls sextette from each school was judged on the same program by C. L. Williams, a graduate of Bowling Green State University, and now a resident of Tontogany.

Sixty Y.M.C.A. Men Splash At Swim In Toledo Pool

About 60 Y.M.C.A. men jammed into buses and cars last Thursday evening and were whisked to Toledo where they enjoyed an hour or more of fancy diving and artful splashing.

The swim was followed by a feast on sauerkraut and weiner sandwiches, potato chips (marcelled), washed down with aromatic coffee. Cherry pie a la mode was then brought in as a chaser.

Bob French, sports writer of the Toledo Blade, gave a short talk on sports, which, he said, is a classic example of the "survival of the fittest."

Nation's Costumes Featured at YWCA Festival Feb. 25

Oberlin Exchange Studies To Give Program

Gay costumes of many nations will enliven the booths of the YWCA International Festival which will be held here Feb. 25. Guests will have an opportunity to hear a program presented by a group of Oberlin Exchange students from other lands, and to see Polish students give one of their folk-dances. Refreshments will be served at a Parisian sidewalk cafe. There will be social and folk-dancing.

Miss Warner and Miss Grace Heatter are in charge of the festival. The chairman and advisors of the other committees are: Doris Lane, Mrs. Jordan, Displays; Arlene Muhlan, Mrs. Zaugg, Program; Agnes Dinmore, Miss Leedom, Publicity; Roberta Henline, Miss Baird, Novelty; Mrs. Jenkins, Refreshments; Margaret Bender, Mrs. Gryting, Finance.

Prof. Schwarz Will Talk On "Founders' Patriotism" At Chapel Today

Prof. John Schwarz will speak at Chapel today. His topic will be "Our Founders' Type of Patriotism."

In keeping with the month of February, he will speak especially of three famous personalities: Washington, Lincoln, and Jefferson.

This lecture, given in the usual interesting Schwarz manner, should be of special interest to all students.

Amherst Students Begin Campaign To Get Social Security Tax Exemptions

Amherst, Mass.—(ACP)—A nationwide campaign to exempt student employees of fraternities and sororities from the taxable payroll of the federal social security act has been organized here by Amherst College fraternities and the staff of the Amherst Student under the direction of D. W. McKinley.

Claiming the support already of the Massachusetts delegation in Congress, the group is asking fraternities and sororities throughout the nation to pound home to their Congressmen and Senators the following facts:

The present law requires that college fraternities pay:

1. Federal Old Age Benefits Payroll Tax, 2 per cent (1 per cent employer, 1 per cent employee). The law provides for a gradual increase in this tax to 6 per cent (3 per cent employer, 3 per cent employee) by 1949.

The tax must be paid on regular employees, student employees working for their board, and paid undergraduate officers.

Benefits are derived in the form of Old Age Pensions for employees reaching the age of 65, or death benefits for those dying before that age.

2. Federal Unemployment Insurance Payroll Tax, 3 per cent of employer's payroll. This tax applies only to fraternities with eight or more employees including students. No direct benefits are derived. A deduction is allowed for amounts paid into State Unemployment Insurance Funds. How-

Leads Council In Ambitious Program

Busier than a floor boy at a stock exchange was Al Cryer, above, as the News cameraman at the risk of his life barged into the student council executive's office for the photo. Cryer was hard at work mapping out plans to continue the council's extensive campus program which puts the securing of smoking rooms for men as its main objective.

Student Loan Fund To Honor Dr. Clayton C. Kohl

To Make Portrait Of Dr. Offenhauer

The University faculty committee on gifts, memorials, and endowments is working on a campaign for a student loan fund in honor of Dr. Clayton C. Kohl and also on a campaign for raising money for a portrait of Dr. R. E. Offenhauer.

The goal for the student loan fund has been set at $5,000 to be reached by soliciting subscriptions from the faculty, students on the campus, alumni, friends, and organizations of which Dr. Kohl was a member. As soon as the soliciting is under way the group will consider regulations for lending money to students so that they may continue their studies.

After the committee has completed its work on this project, it will continue working to establish other loan funds to build up a much larger reserve fund.

The Student Council will take over the soliciting of donations from the student body, and the committee will contact the faculty, and the class which graduated under Dr. Offenhauer.

At a meeting last Wednesday, the faculty agreed to underwrite the necessary sum of $500 to begin the projects.

Prof. John Schwarz is chairman of this standing committee and is assisted by Miss Helen Henderson, Miss Caroline Nielson, Dr. C. G. Swanson, and Dr. E. G. Knepper.

Girls' Glee Club Plans Annual Tour

The University Girls' Glee Club is planning its annual tour which will be made April 16 to April 20.

Approximately 50 girls will travel through southern and eastern Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana in busses. Radio broadcasts will be made from WLW Cincinnati and WOWO Fort Wayne.

Previous to their trip, they will sing in numerous towns in Bowling Green vicinity. On Friday night, April 14, the club will present a home concert.

Mary Sherman, business manager, is receiving daily letters from people interested in having the girls sing in their communities.

The Treble Clef made its first town appearance on Sunday, Feb. 12, when they sang at the local Presbyterian Church. Six sacred numbers were beautifully presented.

Singer's Ingenuity Starts Science Building Clocks

In these "awkward" days of Bowling Green's growth, anything the least bit out of the ordinary threatens to become a school "tradition."

So it is with the university's clocks. Their stoic immunity to the passing of time at first invoked impatience, then disregard, and finally—reverence.

Last week, however, the cold practicality of Science overruled the altruism of tradition.

Professor Willard E. Singer of the Physics Department decided to end a three year wait for administration action. He armed himself with a coil of wire, a ladder, and a lot of ingenuity; and set out to right matters.

The clocks on the fourth floor of the Science Building now merrily click off the hours . . . and there is talk of connecting the rest of the building.

And so, while Prof. Singer hurries from room to room interrupting classes to see if his clocks are running true, one of B G's most promising traditions passes into oblivion.

First Project Is Establishment Of Several Smoking Rooms

Elmer Cryer, president of the student council, outlined plans for the second semester's activities at council meeting held Monday, Feb. 6 in room 201 of the administration building. Cryer also gave a brief resume of the work done last semester.

The outstanding project for the coming semester will be in securing the administration's permission to establish smoking rooms in several buildings on the campus. Taking its cue from the men students who showed a universal desire for this privilege, the council is taking immediate action on the problem. Plans are being laid to furnish a lounge with couches and comfortable chairs where students can relax and spend odd moments between classes.

Fresh Pamphlet Planned

The council hopes to be of service to incoming freshmen next fall by editing and distributing an "organization pamphlet". This booklet will provide an explanation as to purpose and activity of every organization on the campus. It will introduce to the freshman the multiple extra-curricular activities the University offers him.

Election Rules Written

Undertaking the most extensive program ever planned by any previous council, that body aims to establish a definite written set of election rules to govern all campus elections; to present one assembly program through the cooperation of the student body; to join the National Association of Student Councils; to aid in plans for memorials for deceased President Offenhauer and Dr. Kohl; to outline a weekend program of activity for students when there is no social affair listed on the calendar; to inspect and list all the constitutions of the student organizations on the campus; and to cooperate with administration and faculty in any student problems.

Campus Signs Finished

The most outstanding accomplishment of last semester was building the university signs which will be erected as soon as the weather permits. Abe Keown was chairman of the committee which undertook this project. Assisting him were June Stump and Dr. C. G. Swanson. Other projects completed during the last semester are listed as follows: freshman week program; flag purchased for the athletic field; organization of cheering section; running of special election for homecoming queen and other campus elections; intercession for the students in the Ohio Northern affair.

Miss Weldon Brooks is chairman of a committee which is now working on the problem of etiquette and social grace in reference to organizations which sponsor social events. Miss Brooks is assisted by Dr. F. L. Litchfield and Miss Meredith Miller.

Y.M.C.A. Sponsor Religious, Domestic Programs Soon

The Y.M.C.A. will sponsor two programs this spring, it was announced. On March 30 Rabbi Goldberg of Toledo, the Rev. Mr. Frost of Toledo, and Father Horrigan of Bowling Green will discuss religious philosophies in the University auditorium.

Roy Burkhardt of Columbus, authority on home relationships, will deliver an address here on April 20. Students are invited to attend both of these meetings.

Men Debaters Meet DeSales, Oberlin Teams In Practice Rounds Last Week

Men debaters of Bowling Green met teams from De Sales College and Oberlin College during the past week on both the Pi Kappa Delta and the British and American alliance questions.

Last night Howard Shine and Andy Rohrbaugh traveled to Toledo where they debated with De Sales College on the Pi Kappa Delta question.

This was the second engagement with De Sales within a week, for on Wednesday, Feb. 8, Harold Aubrey and Thomas Hoffman of De Sales met with Elmer Cryer and Dick Spittler on the same resolution at Bowling Green.

In this debate Cryer and Spittler took the negative side to argue that the United States should not cease spending public funds to stimulate relief. Last night, Shine and Rohrbaugh were on the affirmative.

The debate with Oberlin was held in the Baptist church at Haskins on Friday, Feb. 10, on the British and American alliance question. Art Shanly and Spittler represented Bowling Green.

Although none of these debates were judged, both Prof. J. W. Carmichael and the De Sales coach gave detailed criticisms to both teams after the first De Sales debate.

THE BEE GEE NEWS FAVORS

Social room for men where men can smoke and talk. Program of activities to halt the suit case parade. Construction of a new science building. Increase school spirit behind athletic teams and the growing traditions of B. G. S. U.

NAME BANDS FOR BEE GEE

The large attendance at the Junior-Senior Prom proved that students here will support at least one or two "name band" dances. It is reasonable to assume that if such a large number of men paid two dollars for tickets in addition to spending a few more for formal attire and corsages, they would easily pay a dollar to bring a "name band" for an all-campus swing in connection with which there would be hardly no extra personal expense. Such a dance is possible with an attendance of 350 couples.

The idea is not new, though. Many students, through the News and elsewhere, since last fall have expressed their desire for a dance of this type. They have pointed out that the obvious group to handle it would be the inter-fraternity council. That suggestion is a good one, but that group has not, in the past, appeared to possess the drive and initiative for the undertaking. Perhaps, now that the council knows that the student body will support a "name band", it will take immediate action toward bringing one here. If it doesn't, then it will be up to some real school spirited organization to do so.

RELAX AT ORGAN HOUR

The sweet strains of the chapel organ vibrate melodiously through the twilight of the assembly hall. There in the dusk it is possible to relax, to forget the worry and excitement of the day and to let fancy drift to far lands on a stream of music. The music, throbbing with emotion and thought, sings to us stories as lovely as any ever told. In the harmonious tunes of never-to-be-forgotten composers the past is reincarnated and the future is prophesied.

A single hour a week is a brief time indeed to spend hearing the works of great composers interpreted by the skillful fingers of our organist, but even that short time may bring quiet enjoyment and relaxation that will send us forth feeling refreshed and rested. Even although you think you cannot spare the time from studies, you should try to attend the Organ Hour today. You will find that your minds are rested and readier for concentration after you have spent that peaceful hour listening to such beautiful music. Give it a try.

CONSIDER, THEN SIGN

Beginning the week of February 26 the three fraternities on the campus will give out between 75 and 100 pledges for prospective brothers to sign. The pledges embody a signed vow to live up to the requirements set down by the fraternity for the period of twelve weeks prior to formal entrance to the fraternity.

The student who receives a pledge from one fraternity usually gets one from one of the other two or from both. The problem of selecting the fraternity is quite a serious one.

In signing a pledge, the most important item to consider is: what type of men do I want to be associated with. A pledge signer would do well if he completely overlooked the seniors in the organization. They will graduate. In selecting a fraternity he should look to the juniors and especially the sophomores—they will be in school when he becomes an active member and he must associate himself with them.

Choose the fraternity in which you find, according to your own individual standards, the men you will be proud to call brother, with all that it implies. Do that and you will fit into the scheme of things.

Floyd Smith of the Parrot has been dating a Parent, not his mother; it happens to be a girl named Jane.

STUDENT COUNCIL ALIVE

At last the student council is growing into an organization worthy of its name instead of the semi-honorary group it has been in the past. Commendable is the work its members have accomplished last semester, and the student council program of this semester indicates that from now on it will continue to be a valuable asset to the University as well as an active and dependable representative body for the students.

SCRAP HEAP

By "Abe" Keown

Editor's note: This is Mr. Keown's last column and the staff is sorry to see the originator of "Scrap Heap" leave his old post. However, "Abe's" duties as sports editor calls for his concentration on that phase of the paper so we reluctantly say goodbye. One thing is certain though. "Abe" is going out on the crest of popularity, and we hope that his successors will carry on the good work.

From Abe: I appreciate the attitude of the people who I have frequently mentioned in my column. I am really sorry that I just can't carry the column and do a decent job. Anyhow from now on do not lower your voice or cast a scornful glance, because it may be dirt, but I'm not interested.

Thanks,
"Abe" Keown

3 KAY NEWS

The 3 Kay Sorority deviated somewhat from its regular rush party last Tuesday night and chartered two buses to take rush nominees to the Findlay game. I admire your sacrifice to attend this game while other groups were holding regular parties. I'm sure the team appreciates such an attitude as you have displayed.

FROM THE SHOULDER

A fad of wearing 10c store diamonds by campus sweethearts necessitates that I take a course in detecting the real McCoy. Being the innocent victim in one of the write-ups in this column causes me to say just this: A 10c ring means to me as much as a $100 ring if it is worn on the right finger. I do think engagements are more or less sacred and are not occasions for jokes.

CONGRATS BLACKIE

Escaping the watchful eyes of my informers a notorious campus personage slipped on the ring and tied the bow before your truly could write him up. Anyhow, I will let you in so you may collect a cigar this afternoon. This young man's specialty has been to carry the apple for Ockerman's pig-skinners and we sincerely hope that Paul (Blackie) Miles will be able to carry his tenacious fighting qualities into the home and the boudoir.

SOMETHING NEW

The second semester frosh group looks pretty fine. Many new female attractions grace the marble halls of the institution as well as those walls of our local swing palace. One of the new numbers has blue eyes (Oh! Man), another black eyes that literally sparkle when she talks and the other one called to my attention I have yet to get close enough to see her eyes. (I mean the color of the eye).

FIVE FLASH

The 5's Sweetheart Swing was surely occasioned by a marked attendance of permanent and semi-permanent propositions. The utter lack of a stag line both girls and men was a conspicuous feature. Of course over in the corner Tom Recker took some pictures for the lovely swains to pass on to their posterity. Thanks girls for a fine dance and a smooth evening. Everyone had an elegant evening.

STUDENT VOICE

By Bee Dennis

Should the Bee Glee News continue its present size issue with limited finances and possibly not be able to run its last few issues or should it immediately return to the small sheet to be safe financially?

LaVere Herringshaw, sophomore: "I think the news should keep its present size as it makes a much better looking paper. The increased size allows for more news and makes a more interesting paper."

Robert Carmichael, graduate student: "The Bee Glee News should by all means continue with the present size of the paper for our newspaper should grow as the University is enlarging."

Boyd Musser, sophomore: "The present size of the Bee Glee News is much better than the former size. A school paper doesn't have to have a glossy finish to make it attractive. After students read it once, they don't use it for light reflectors. I'm for the new paper and feel that we should be able to afford it."

Paul Wilhelm, junior: "By all means should the Bee Glee News continue its present size issue. The present paper contains more news, is better organized, and is written in a style that is representative of a growing university. Why not meet the financial problem when it arises? Certainly in a school of this size, there is someone who can solve it."

Next Week: Would you prefer the Satisfactory-Unsatisfactory grading system to the method now in use?

Free, white, and twenty-one plus is Thurman Blaser, graduate of Wittenberg College, an Alpha Tau Omega, who is now working on his Masters in Education.

Thurman left school at the close of his junior year at Fostoria High, and was assistant manager of the Scott Chain Stores for the three following years. He then graduated in 1933 and entered Wittenberg where he majored in Physical Education and minored in Math and Sociology, graduating in '37. While there, "T" was outstanding in football, basketball, baseball, and track. He was also light heavyweight champ of intramural boxing.

T. Blaser And during his junior and senior years, he was All Ohio Honorable Mention End to top his four letters in football. Last year he taught Math and Sociology and coached at Lykens, Ohio. He was also Principal of Junior High, Dean of Boys, and Freshman Class Advisor. Blaser has just received an offer for a coaching job in North Carolina, but has not decided definitely to accept.

This Campus Casanova's main ambition is to coach football. His hobby is collecting cigarette coupons and humidors. He enjoys seeing plays, playing bridge, and tennis, swimming, dancing, and hunting. "T" is especially fond of his short, stocky, and sports-loving parents. And speaking of sentiment, there's a certain blonde in Toledo. She, too, has a Wittenberg diploma and answers to the name of Mary Lou—yes, girls, it's serious!

Henry Busse's Orchestra At Trianon Thursday

When Henry Busse first came to the United States almost a quarter of a century ago, he brought with him a battered trumpet which he used in starting his musical career. Ever since playing his first note on it, the instrument had been with the youngster and when he was forced to part with it upon arriving in this country, he vowed if ever he owned another trumpet, it would be made according to his own specifications.

Now the genial maestro, who brings his famous orchestra to The Trianon in Toledo on Thursday, has every right to smile as he has seen his every desire fulfilled while rising to the heights in the musical field with his talented array of musicians and entertainers.

The Student Government League will hold an important business meeting and will have its picture taken at 4 p.m. Wednesday, February 15.

POETRY CORNER

War!

A mother's son, not yet through college,
Impetuous youth, eager for the battle—
The cannon's roar—the rifles' rattle,
Long for glory and not for knowledge.
So school was forgotten and off they sent
This boy, who, he was told, must end
This war of wars; this conflict of nations.
Assigned to a post, given a gun
And a serious task—no place for fun.
Over the top at the first break of dawn—
On he crept—to use his skill,
A rifle cracks! A lad lay still,
One mother wept. The war went on.

by exempting Amherst College fraternities.

4. Since college fraternities are supported by undergraduate assessments, the total tax (now 5 per cent, eventually 9 per cent) on student employees is borne entirely by its undergraduates. The employee's share (now 1 per cent, eventually 3 per cent) falls directly on those undergraduates least able to afford it, who are working their way through college.

Air Minded Men May Get Pilot Course At Findlay

Findlay airport has recently taken surveys of Bowling Green, Ohio Northern, Bluffton and Findlay colleges in an effort to discover if there is enough interest to warrant a course in piloting. Further action depends upon the passing or vetoing of the bill for government training of pilots now pending in the Senate.

table to the processes that breed war. "A world that is felt to be a fascinating, and provocative, and satisfying world is a poor world in which to arouse discontent.

"I have a belief that art, taken from its pedestal, sheared of its snobbery and patter and trimmed of its cultural pretensions, might become a fine and exciting reason for living and that the gains of war might seem flat and tasteless.

"A vital religion, were it universal, might accomplish the same end. One hindrance to its success might be its emphasis on a world to come for happiness. A modern generation is not a pilgrim tarrying but a night. It has things to ask of this world and devises means to get them now."

Prof. Nash explained his philosophy was derived from experiences as a grade school, high school, and college teacher, as a worker in industrial plants and as an army man.

ALL SORTS FROM ALL SPORTS

One week and five days from this date, Feb. 27 to be exact, the preliminaries of the all-college boxing tournament will take place in the gymnasium ring under the auspices of the Falcon varsity club.

The show will be remembered by all in attendance last year as one marked with aggressiveness, fierce punching, gameness, and stamina on the part of the champions and near champions who participated.

Of major importance and significance to the entrants is the fact that the varsity club furnishes them with the required equipment in the form of head-gears, mouthpieces, trunks, gloves, and most important an instructor. The tutor being Tom Vail, former professional title holder of both Michigan and Ohio.

Bill Frutig, welterweight crown who knows his business thoroughly.

Ticket sales have been placed in the hands of Archie Steele, the "Canary Scot," and Dale Herbert of the football Herberths who will have them on sale the latter part of this week.

In many of its aspects the coming show will surpass last year's performance by virtue of the fine array of talent already signing entry blanks. Entrants to date are 40 in number and include Don Brentlinger and Boyd Musser, two heavyweights of repute that are noted for their ability to punch and take a punch. Champions who will defend their titles number Gordon Humphries, Charley Cataneese, Ben Schulman, Paul Apple, George Dickey, and Carl Roth. Potential champions filing entry blanks include Harry Hicks, Vic Peterson, Bill Woodward, and Eddie Wellner who comes from the "Heart of Industry" where they begin fighting at an early age or else.

PRIZE OF THE WEEK

If you'll look closely over the doorways leading into the reception hall one's attention will be drawn by the letters G-Y-M-N-A-S-I-U-M which haven't been removed since its conversion into a Ball room by Government funds.

In that connection, and during the intermission at the recent successful J-Hop that Art Shanley promoted, one of the group of Barney Rapp's men standing in the hallway said, "They certainly have funny gyms down here in Ohio." Whereupon Abe Keowan explained the existence of said lettering and everything was straightened out. Which cleans up everything that I'd set up for your attention, Falcons, and Good Luck!

Frosh Basketeer

From Maumee, Ohio comes Earl Brillhart, a five foot eleven, one-hundred-forty-eight lad who is majoring in Physical Education.

He is one of the fastest men on the squad in addition to being a fine floor man. His speed makes him a dangerous man on a fast break.

Besides winning two letters at Maumee in both basketball and football, he was one of the few men to graduate from that school with four varsity track awards. He runs the 220 and 440 in fast time and on the side he broad and high jumps along with pole vaulting. He can also hold his own in a tennis match or on ice skates.

Road Jinx Again Overtake Hoopsters As Stobbsmen Won

Long Trip Proves Too Much For Cagers

Wittenberg's flashy Lutherans, defending Ohio conference champs, proved too much for the Bowling Green Falcons as they drove forward in their mad dash to succeed themselves as conference champions. By pasting the Landismen with a 50-30 setback the boys from Springfield ran their consecutive victory string to eight and moved up higher in the race for the coveted crown.

The game proved to be an all-Wittenberg affair as they jumped into an early lead and continued to maintain a large margin throughout the fracas.

Maybe it was the return of the old away from home jinx which had heckled the Browns and Orange cagers early in the season. But no matter what the source the Falcons really took it on the nose at the hands of the churchmen.

The Lutherans fast stepping offense was paced by sophomore center in the person of big Ed Chatlain who banged through 18 counters. The victors led at half time by the score of 25-12.

This defeat brought the Falcons' conference standing to three victories and four defeats with three more conference games on the slate.

A Mighty Mite

The honor of being the smallest man on the team belongs to Dick Dorsey, better known as "Tommy", who is but five feet two inches tall and weighs almost one hundred and twenty pounds. He might well be called the "little Napoleon" of the court because he is a heady ball player and is also a fine passer. He makes up in speed what he lacks in size and his shots from out in front of the basket are deadly.

"Tommy" received his high school diploma in Findlay and is getting a major in accounting. He spends his summers playing tennis and sleeping. He enjoys a good game of bridge and although you'd never guess it his pet hobby is eating.

Blue Tide Of Capital Tangies With Falcons In Even Tilt Tuesday

Kormazis, Croyle And Bishop To Lead Orange Attack

The Fighting Lutherans of Capital University boasting an All-Ohio forward in "Parson Paul" Weaver, and a running mate Dale Helmich who completes one of the toughest scoring combinations in the circuit, the church lads are confident that they can turn back the Orange tide Tuesday, Feb. 21, in the Falcon gym.

Dissatisfied with the performance of the Falcons, Coach Landis is working the Bee Gee boys hard. Looking at Cap's 61-50 trouncing of Findlay emphasizes their ability to hit the meshes consistently. At the same time Otterbein and Ohio Northern tough conference foes, have fallen before the blue crusade.

With the "Spark-plug" Harold Bishop getting into top shape and "Buckets" Kormazis' rapid improvement assisted by that sophomore lad, Leroy Croyle, the Falcons deserve plenty of attention in this battle.

Other Falcons who will see their share of performance in this early week game will be "Duff" Madaris, "Zook" Zechman, Capt. Cordisco and Eddie Mussil.

Lutheran Threat

Dale Helmich

Canceled Vacation Cage Game Finds Falcons Traveling

Mediocre Youngstown Five Give Falcons Chance To Stop Jinx

Bowling Green's Falcons will endeavor to jump back into the win column when they journey to Youngstown tomorrow night to play the Youngstown College basketballers.

The Youngstown game was scheduled at an earlier date as part of the Falcon's first Christmas vacation road trip but was cancelled by the tragic death of Dr. Offenhauer.

Youngstown College has had a very mediocre season to date and the Landismen should find them to their liking. But of course the game can not be taken too lightly as no one seems to be able to predict basketball scores on the basis of the teams records.

The members of the Modern Dance Club have started to work on plans for a concert to be given early this spring.

BASKETBALL

Last Thursday's games were rather slow, the girls did not seem to have their usual pep. The Black Jacks and Flashes' game proved to be the most exciting with the score tied several times during the last half. The final score was: Black Jacks 13; Flashes 8.

The Fighting Dears trimmed the Fleetwings 14 to 3 as did the Waterloos the Prides 12 to 6. The Bucket Masters again showed their superiority by holding the Rockets to 4 points while they were able to make 9 "two-pointer" baskets count.

Nip 'n' Tuck Until Last 5 Minutes

The Bee Gee Falcons, after a slow start, romped to a 47-38 victory over Findlay College in an Ohio Conference tilt, Tuesday, Feb. 7, on the latter's floor.

Findlay opened the game with a barrage of shots which netted them a 14-4 lead with only five minutes of the ball game played, but the half ended 25-24, Findlay.

The second half saw the Falcons continue a scoring spree as they pulled away to a 35-25 lead early in the final period. The battle was waged on even terms in the remaining minutes, and the final gun assured Bowling Green of a 47-38 triumph.

As prescribed by the Intercollegiate rules all bouts will be of three two-minute rounds to a decision; in case of a draw, one extra two-minute round. Daily workouts on the punching bag and mats should begin immediately, is the advice given by intramural managers.

Bowling Green State University is well represented in the local basketball federation. The B. G. Merchants being almost entirely composed of students. Al Sautter, Lynn Powell, Dwight Toedler, Musser and Rychnar are the lads who swish 'em for the Merchants.

Meeting one of the finest track teams in the midwest, the Bee Gee thinclads, in their initial meet of the season with Wayne University, looked unimpressive as they were hopelessly outclassed 87-17 in a dual meet held last Saturday in Detroit.

Coach P. E. Landis, who was traveling with the basketball squad, was unable to accompany the team to the motor city. Coach Jim Inman made the trip as acting coach.

Bowling Green made its only bid in the 880 yard run and in the two mile jaunt where they captured both second and third places in those events.

Following are the results and times of the meet.

40 YARD DASH—Won by Henderson (W); second, Adams (W); third, Higham (BG). Time 4.8 seconds.

Quill Type Annual Dance Will Be Held Friday In Reception Hall; Raye's Orchestra To Play

By VIRGINIA FRANCES

With sorority rushing season in full swing, Jessie Zimmerman, President of Inter-Sorority Council presents some of the rules from the official constitution governing sororities. Rushing is climaxed at the ninth week with formal rush parties, after which rushees sign preference slips in the office of the Dean of Women. Previous to this year Freshmen were rushed the first semester. This season is expected to swell sorority membership one hundred percent.

V. Frances

At a Valentine party at Pierce's on Thursday, Feb. 9, the Seven Sisters entertained forty-four rushees. Guests tried their luck at hitting the Bull's eye on a huge heart. Other appropriate games were played after which heart-shaped feed cakes and ice cream were served.

Las Amigas Sorority entertained 50 Freshman girls at three parties on Wednesday, Feb. 8. A backwards party was held at Shatzel Hall, and Valentine parties at the sorority house and Miss Grace D. Wills' apartment.

Bob Deikeman and his band from Lima played at the Five Sister All-Campus Sweetheart Dance last Friday night at the Men's Gym.

Behind the orchestra was placed a large red heart with pictures of a boy and girl upon it. Smaller hearts with the names of campus couples on them were fastened to the balcony. These hearts were removed late in the evening by the couples whose names they held.

Still recovering from the gay "hearty" holiday dance which was such a grand success The Fives are busy with plans for a "rush party".

Monday evening was the traditional "Hell Night" and Tuesday night formal initiation for two last semester pledges, Rose Marie Johnson and Genieve Kellogg was held. Also from the Five House comes the news that Mrs. McClure who is going away in June will be replaced by a Mrs. Harmon of Bowling Green, as house-mother.

Only those girls having one semester's residence credit shall be eligible for group rushing.

Individual rushing may be done any time during the first eight weeks of each semester.

Formal rush week shall be the ninth week of each semester during which time group rushing may be done only on the night specified.

Rushees shall meet in the auditorium Monday of the ninth week at 4 p. m. to receive instruction concerning rushing and signing of preference slips. Announcement of this meeting together with a printed copy of instructions shall be sent with the invitation to the formal rush party.

On Monday following rush week at 4 p. m., unless otherwise announced by the Dean of Women, rushees must be in the office of the Dean of Women to sign preference slips.

The Delhis are in the process of formulating plans for the Delhi Spring Formal which will be held April 15. Fifty invitations were sent out for the Commoner smoker which will be held at the fraternity house at 307 E. Wooster street, 9:00 p. m. to-night. The fraternity will have another party after pledges have signed.

The Commoners have recently furnished an ultra-modern lounge in their living room.

The Fillere twins, Doyce and Cloyce, visited at the house last week-end. Chuck Blazer made his weekly round of Commoner and Seven-Sister houses.

The Five Brothers started their second semester activities on Tuesday, Feb. 7, with a smoker at which 75 men and faculty were present. Members of the Faculty who were present were: Dr. Shafer, Prof. Poling, Dr. Weber, Prof. Holt and Prof. Powell.

The Women's League is giving its annual Housemothers' Tea this afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock at Studio B in the Practical Arts building. During the hour Miss Margaret Zaugg will entertain the guests with selections on the piano. Mrs. Sharp and Miss Jane Hobart will pour.

The subject of hospital technicians was the topic of interest to the girls of the Home Economic Club at their meeting last Wednesday. Mrs. Bernice Shaner, of Toledo, a graduate of Bowling Green, spoke of her work in a Toledo hospital, which consisted of various laboratory tests to aid the doctor's diagnoses. The work is very fascinating but requires a great deal of technical skill. Mrs. Shaner said, and thus far has been done by women. Questions as to wages, hours, training, and requirements were raised by the group. Hot punch and Brownies were served in the apartment dining room.

Quill Type Private Dance Scheduled For Feb. 17

WESTERN RESERVE'S NEWS POLL

Running sequel to the B. G. News poll on news of greatest interest, The Tribune of Western Reserve university has drawn these conclusions from the tabulation of results. The editorial page is the most thoroughly read page in the paper with the sports page in second place. Sports columns are among the leaders because of the current high interest in basketball. Stories with art and pictures are read more often than those without art. Two-column heads are read more often than one-column heads.

MASS EDUCATION EVILS ERADICATED

In trying to curb the evils of mass education, Colgate University has been using the tutorial system for the past five years. The results have been excellent for:

The student malcontent who is unable to adjust himself to his environment has been virtually eliminated. "One great result of individual treatment has been a marked decrease in personality problems on the campus."

The medical department revealed that the number of nervous breakdown cases per year has been reduced from five to one.

Besides holding conferences regarding classroom work, preceptors and tutors discuss the students' personal problems.

FOR WOMEN ONLY:

To even the score for the criticism against the boys, this week we offer the following suggestions for girls:

Men resent: the use of a comb at the table, lipstick smeared on collars and coats after dancing, dandruff on hair or clothing, ill-kept fingernails and hair, girls who break dates for supposed better ones, possessive women after three dates or so.

Members of Dr. Cooke's commercial classes acknowledge that their classes are the closest thing to a "slap-stick" comedy, since way back when. No verification is necessary as a slight bit of wayward gossip falls, that his star pupil Gene (Slim voice) Basinger is now writing to his girl friend in Findlay and forgetting to place stamps upon the letter. That is a breach of ethics for any Business Ad. major. Still, no dummies come out of Dr. Cooke's classes alive.

RAMBLERS TAKE DELHI!

A 2 point upset victory for the Ramblers dropped the Delhi No. 1 aggregation from the undefeated list and from a tie for first place. With Smith and Furgeson doing the scoring and Grach, Owens and Nunemaker battling off the desperate last minute thrusts of the Court Street boys the victory was never certain until the horn ended the game. Powell of Delhi and Smith of Ramblers were tied for high man in scoring with 12 points each. The final score was 27-25.
